VING Opens New Main Gate to Bethlehem Military Complex

The Virgin Islands National Guard's new Main Gate to the Estate Bethlehem Military Compound on St. Croix opened on Saturday September 3. This gate is now the primary entrance to the facility.

The new VING main gate is across from the entrance to the Estate Bethlehem Sugar Factory and west of the previous gate. The new gate will have one entrance lane and a separate exit lane. Construction is on-going therefore the middle lane will remain closed until the project is fully operational.

Traffic signs are posted adjacent to the area and on the current gate directing the public to the new entrance. The former access gate to the Estate Bethlehem Military Compound will remain closed effective Saturday September 3.

Drivers are asked to observe the directions from the security guards upon entering the new gate and are urged to use caution as they enter and exit the military facility from the Major General Romney Drive. Drivers are cautioned to reduce speed when approaching up the hill from west to east.
