VING Conducting Vehicle Movement Training Exercises This Weekend

- - Road Safety Advisory - -

The Virgin Islands National Guard will conduct vehicle movement training exercises on Saturday, October 16 and Sunday, October 17. These exercises provide Guardsmen with valuable training on new and existing equipment, as well as, provide an opportunity for equipment maintenance and readiness at the highest level.

The VING training exercises include vehicle movement thru routes on the North Shore, East End, South Shore, Hess Road, Melvin Evans Highway, Queen Mary Highway, King Street (Frederiksted), Mahogany Road and Midland Road.

The Adjutant General for the Virgin Islands Major General Renaldo Rivera thanks the V. I. Police Department for its support and asks the motoring public to drive safely and carefully as they encounter military vehicles on the roads during the training weekend.
