The Virgin Islands National Guard Family Programs Office is hosting territory-wide youth meetings for military dependants between the ages of 13-17 years-old on Saturday, January 15. Youth will discuss and plan social events for the year. We aim for success and fun for our National Guard youth.

On St. Croix, the youth meeting is at the William D. Roebuck Industrial Park Conference Room (on the Melvin Evans highway opposite to old Public Safety Headquarters stoplight) on St. Croix from 10 a.m.-12 p.m.

On St. Thomas, the youth meeting is Saturday, January 15 at the Sergeant First Class Leonard B. Francis Armory Conference Room (in Estate Nazareth) from 4 p.m.-6 p.m.

Light refreshments will be served.

The National Guard Youth Development Program provides the support and resources for youth to develop their physical, social, emotional and cognitive abilities and experience achievement, leadership, employment, friendship and recognition opportunities.
