V.I. Guardsmen Supporting Drug-Free Lifestyle at Annual Bazaar Saturday March 5 on St. Thomas

Through its Counter Drug Task Force Drug Demand Reduction (CDTF-DDR) program, the Virgin Islands National Guard encourages children and families to cultivate positive habits that denounce the use of drugs. The 11th Annual Drug Free Bazaar is Saturday March 5 at Tutu Park Mall center court on St. Thomas from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. This year's theme is "Careers before Tears."

The Drug Free Bazaar is a forum that shares alternatives to drugs, crimes and violence in our community. Information will be provided on drug prevention, career opportunities, resume building and more. This a family-friendly event with skit performances, games and activities.

The St. Thomas Drug Free Bazaar at Tutu Park Mall on Saturday March 5 is supported by a host of community agencies like the Law Enforcement Planning Commission (LEPC), V. I. National Guard, V.I. Prevention Council, Labor Department, Bordeaux Farmers, Girls on the Go, Human Resources, boating industries and other private agencies in conjunction with Tutu Park Mall.

For more information on the VING Counter Drug Task Force Drug Demand Reduction Program, contact DDR NCO Staff Sergeant Laurel Maloon-Francis at 340-776-3240 or email laurel.maloonfrancis@us.army.mil
